The Main Street of America is a film by John Paget. It is the official video of the Route 66 Centennial project (The Mother Road turns 100 this year). John is coming to Sacramento on Tuesday, February 24th. John has been making movies and taking pictures on Route 66 for many years.

If you are registered for one or both of our trips, you have already received advance notice of this event. If you aren't a Route 66 traveler, but would like to attend the afternoon presentation, we have a limited number of seats available for Travel Club Members.

This is an afternoon presentation at the California Automobile Museum, 2200 Front St., starting at 1pm. Tickets are free, but capacity is limited. You must have a reservation. Call our office to request your tickets.

There is also an evening show for KVIE viewers. Tickets for that program are $45 per person (same show as the afternoon). There is no member discount for the evening show.

The KVIE Speakers Series is something Sports Leisure sponsored in 2025. This year's series features Richard Glazer, award-winning pianist, narrator, documentary filmmaker and a leading authority on American Popular Song. He will appear on Thursday, April 30th at 7pm at the KVIE studios. Tickets are $65 and are available on the KVIE web site.

In August, Sacramento's own Dusty Baker will be the featured speaker. There will be a meet-and-greet and everyone from our Spring Training 2025 & 2026 groups will receive an invitation to attend as our guest. For other baseball fans, watch the April newsletter on details on how you can purchase tickets and attend, and/or place your name on the on line wait list for Dusty and/or the Test Kitchen ladies below at: <https://www.kvie.org/events/studioseries/>

Finally, in August, Julia Collin Davison and Bridget Lancaster, who are long-time test cooks and popular co-hosts of the PBS shows America's Test Kitchen (ATK) and Cook's Country, will be in town. Details on tickets will be available later.

America's Mother Road, Route 66

When John Steinbeck penned The Grapes of Wrath in 1939, he wrote "66 is the mother road, the road of flight, the road of wandering" as he spoke of the Joad family's journey heading west. Dust Bowl migrants fleeing to California, looking for a new beginning took Route 66. The highway became a powerful symbol of American migration, freedom, and the burgeoning road trip culture, with countless people relying on it for survival and opportunity. Hundreds of thousands of displaced families traveled Route 66 to seek work and a better life in California.

Fast forward 100 years. The Mother Road has been replaced by FIVE interstate highways, with much of the old road running through small towns or just off the interstate. It's not only intact but just waiting to be explored by new generations of travelers.

Often people will ask me, "What's your favorite destination, your favorite trip after all these years?"

There are many favorites. I'm fond of Crazy Horse Mountain in the Black Hills, the Field of Dreams in Iowa, standing in Times Square in New York, Bryce Canyon Nat'l Park, Ketchikan, Alaska...if I keep writing the list will go on forever.

But if you want the name of a trip that is the favorite, then it has to be Route 66. My first trip on The Main Street of America came in 1997. Tour Director and old friend Scott Farrell flew to Chicago with me so we could scout the old highway and the things along it. I'm not sure what we hoped or expected to find. We had a hoard of guidebooks (remember, 1997, so no cell phones) and maps. Silly me, I thought it was going to be about old attractions by the side of the road.

Turned out the journey was about the people and their stories. It was about the land, even the concrete itself. I quickly learned that the faster you travel Old 66, the less you get to know about it. You have to slow down. You have to leave the interstate and find yourself in another time and place.

You have to eat breakfast at Lou Mitchell's in Chicago, stand inside the Blue Whale in Catoosa, or trade laughs and stories with Angel Delgadillo in Seligman. You have to avoid stepping in burro poop in Oatman, hear the story of a lost love found at the Exotic World Museum site in the California desert and snap a selfie at the Wigwam Hotel (there are two on the route).

Route 66 is about a different time and place in these United States. I've been taking folks on the old highway for nearly three decades. It's still my favorite journey. There are so many stories to be told, so many people to meet, and sooooo much roadie food to "relish". Route 66, where Chicken Fried Steak is king!

This year, the old highway celebrates it's 100th birthday. Seems appropriate that lines up with our country's 250th anniversary, because the highway really did signify the start of an era. If the Lincoln Highway, created 15 years earlier, whetted appetites for longer journeys, Route 66 made them possible.

We have a half dozen seats left on each of our two spring departures that cover the route from Chicago to Oklahoma City. The western side of the trip, OKC to Santa Monica, in October, is available for the first time on these pages. We split the journey in half to be able to take a more leisurely trip.

Much will be written and said about this historic highway in the next 12 months. It would be my pleasure for Tyler and I to host you on a journey over this piece of American history. We might even stop for ice cream once or twice...

Barry Manilow in Palm Springs

We had two groups in Palm Springs to experience Barry's Christmas Show in Palm Springs. The McCallum Theater there has some of the best acoustics in the country and

Mr. Manilow used them to his advantage. It was a terrific evening, all done for charity. The shows raised over $500,000 for dozens of worthy Palm Springs area causes. This is the seventh time Mr. Manilow has hosted this event in the town he and his partner make their home in.

In the days after the show, it was announced he had been diagnosed with lung cancer. Because it was detected very early, Barry should be back performing in Las Vegas in a month or two. He's 82 years young. Amazing. See him in person if you get the chance.

★★★★★★★★

Christmas Card Note: Our most notable card this Christmas came from Travel Club Member Elda Troup. Elda is 103 and still going strong. Her traveling days are behind her now, but she's still pushing ahead. 103. I can picture her smile as I write this...

Friends:

Most of you know 2025 was a difficult year for me. So it was nice to enjoy some lagniappe back in November. Lagniappe is the Cajun word for “a little something extra.” Something unexpected. Something nice. REALLY nice!

For decades you’ve heard Mark and I expound on the virtues of the National Tour Association, the trade association for tour operators based in the US, Canada and Mexico. Both of us hold the association’s Certified Tour Professional designation. (Now you know what CTP following our names means.) Mark is a two-time past president of the organization – the only one in our 75-year history – served on the board of directors for 14 years, and has many NTA awards and accolades to his name. Whereas Mark usually follows the leadership route, my involvement has always been in operations. I have been blessed to be a lead volunteer for most of the past 25 years overseeing the welcoming and orientation process for new members. I met most of my best industry friends when they were “newbies.” I was often the first person they got to know in the association, and as they say, “you always remember your first.” Speaking of firsts, I was honored to receive the association’s very first Volunteer of the Year award back in 2007. But none of this prepared me for what happened in November.

The final luncheon of our annual meeting climaxed with the presentation of the Bob Everidge Lifetime Achievement Award. Bob was a past president and a great friend, a gentleman who exuded pure joy, a great passion for our industry and a sincere love of his fellow traveler. Normally this award goes to a past president. (Yes, Mark has one hanging on his wall.) It doesn’t usually go to someone in the trenches . . . someone like me. I must confess, it felt really good to be acknowledged by my peers. To know that I was seen. Appreciated. However this award is not rooted in NTA, but right here in Sacramento. If it weren’t for all of you, I would not be a tour operator. I would not attend industry gatherings. I would not help the newbies or enjoy professional relationships and friendships that span four decades. I might still be working at McDonald’s! So THANK YOU each and every one for making this wonderful career – this LIFE – possible.

As we look ahead together into 2026, we celebrate a number of anniversaries such as the Semiquincentenary of the United States (that means our 250th birthday, but try saying it three times fast!) and the Centennial of “The Mother Road,” Route 66. Whereas we experienced the usual flurry in sales immediately following Vacation Preview Day back in September, seats remain on most trips after our faithful team of fleet-winged tour planners swooped in and made adjustments. On others a waitlist is available. Here are a few favorites:

As your resident Southern Gentleman, you know I have to pitch our trips to the South and East Coast. Don’t overlook New Orleans...And All That Jazz in March and the April Semiquincentenary trips Pathways of Patriots (visiting eastern Virginia) and Stars, Stripes and Carnegie Hall (spotlighting Philadelphia and New York City). Equally patriotic is our June tour from Boston to the Shores of Old Cape Cod. And to see the place just about as far east as you can go, Mainly Maine – Lobsters and Lighthouses in August might just be your cup of chowder! (Yum!) I don’t expect any of these vacations to be repeated in 2027, so now’s the perfect time to see the USA with Sports Leisure!

In the West, we have the Grand Canyon and Red Rock Village of Sedona in May and South Dakota, Home of American Legends in August/September. We’ll be returning to the Albuquerque Balloon Fiesta in October and Mark has now put the finishing touches on Route 66 West, also in October. Looking for a no-fly trip close to home? Then check out Wonder Valley Ranch in May which includes visits to Sequoia and Kings Canyon National Parks.

I look forward to seeing you on the road in 2026!

“Your Tour Guy,”

Clayton Whitehead, CTP
President

Clayton received his award from NTA President Catherine Prather (right) and Board Chair Monique van Dijk-Seppola. In his acceptance speech he told everyone that he was inspired to enter the travel industry by watching “The Love Boat” on television in the late 1970s whilst in junior high school.

The Customers Always Write

Mark / Clayton,

Family update, our mother Ruth Howard died in early October at the age of 98. She lived with her daughter Peggy Mutzig for 8 months. Her motto was "travel while you can". Her last trip with SLV through the Panama Canal in 2018. First trip Catalina Island in 2004. She started doing journals for all of her trips since she was ten!

Hi Clayton

As a longtime member of Sports Leisure and Gold River Villagers, learned a lot more about how you and Mark started in the travel industry. Believe you were a hit with the ladies and should have some new travelers. A couple of the ladies at my table ears perked up then you mentioned the Pageant of the Masters so I encouraged them to be sure to go. After the luncheon other ladies were interested in the Pageant along with other trips. I did some PR work promoting your trips and also how traveling as a single works so well. Perhaps a commission is in order – just kidding. Thanks again for a great talk today.

Dear Mark & Clayton,

On behalf of Remember A Vet.net and the annual Wreath Project, we extend our gratitude for your extremely generous donation of $2,990 towards the 2025 campaign. You continue to amaze us every year with your generous support of this project and we couldn't appreciate you more!

As you may know, this project exists solely to ensure that each of the veterans resting at the Sacramento Valley National Cemetery is honored with a bough every Christmas. Private contributions, such as yours, in addition to local fundraising events, provide the necessary funds to purchase these boughs as a way to express our gratitude to our veterans as well as their families. This December 38,000 boughs were placed by thousands of volunteers, recognizing each and every one of the military members resting at SVNVC.

Again, we thank you for your generosity and continued support of this very heartfelt community event! You're appreciated more than you know!

Sincerely,
The Stocking Family

Ed. Note: This is what happens when a bunch of Sports Leisure Travelers get together and throw $10 each in the kitty (like at Tour Preview Day). Your small donations, put together, amount to $$$ worth a lot to charities in and around our area. Read on for another Preview Day thank you...

Dear Sports Leisure Vacations,

As we enter our 37th school year at Mustard Seed School, the staff are reflecting on the mission of this holy place – to create a safe, structured, nurturing environment where kids can be kids. While the staff and campus look different than 37 years ago, the intention of those who started this work looks the same – brand new backpacks with new school supplies, new socks and underwear for every student, classrooms prepared with the whole child in mind, and every space a reflection of the children we serve.

Your donation goes directly to making our mission a reality. Mustard Seed was dreamed up by folks who knew we would need the support of our community to sustain this work – people just like you who care for a child you have never met. We thank you in our hearts every day. Thank you so much for making a difference in the lives of our unhoused students.

With joy and gratitude,
Stacy Johnson, Program Director

Folks,

Thank you for your generous gift to the Mukilteo Historical Society! MHS welcomes your support to advance historical documentation of the City of Mukilteo and its community. We are grateful every day for our volunteers who maintain our light station and gardens, staff our gift shop, provide tours, serve as documents, preserve our archives of community history, and create exhibits to share with visitors who arrive from all over the world. Your generous donation will support our continued work on these efforts. Most of all, we appreciate you and your personal commitment to helping us maintain the Mukilteo lighthouse that has been a community icon since 1906.

Mukilteo Historical Society,
Jerry Arnold, President

Dear Mark,

Thank you for your generous $200 donation. This letter serves as your receipt. As of September 12, we received the long-awaited building permit from the City of Bainbridge Island for the new Visitor Center! We are working closely with our contractor to move forward quickly.

Your donation is especially critical at this time, as construction costs have risen beyond original estimates. We are truly grateful for your support and your commitment to bringing your tour groups to the Memorial year after year. Your generosity brings us closer to opening a center that will educate, inspire, and protect the values of justice and inclusion for generations to come.

With Gratitude,
Ellen Sato Faust, Executive Director
Bainbridge Island Japanese American
Exclusion Memorial Association

Ed. Note: If you have been with us to Puget Sound in July in years past, you saw the temporary exhibits. Soon, they will have a proper Visitors Center. Our travelers have contributed for many years. It's an important story they tell, especially now.

Dear Mark,

Thank you for entering our $100,000 Steam Up Sweepstakes with your generous donation of $100.00. All 133 prizes have been awarded and winners notified. Your name wasn't among them, but please know this: your contribution was no less valuable. In fact, it was vital.

What Does Seating on Southwest Airlines Look Like Now?

Later this month, Southwest Airlines will abandon their “no reserved seats” system and go with reserved seating. Some like the idea, some do not. Since the airline didn’t ask us our opinion, what we think really doesn’t matter. A group called Elliott Management, an “activist investor,” decided the airline’s old system wasn’t making it enough money. The company bought Southwest stock in big numbers and threatened to invade the company’s Board of Directors if their higher profit ideas weren’t headed. Southwest gave in.

Like it or not, the things that made Southwest different will be gone at the end of the month. From now on, when you get on that Southwest plane, you will know exactly where you are seated. Those with disabilities boarding early will no longer be able to pick off the aisle seats in the front of the plane unless they have paid to sit there. Customers needing extra time will still board early, but will have assigned seats.

One thing travelers need to know. Airlines don’t make a lot of money when you are flying on their airplanes. They make money when you pay for a seat, check your bag and/or carry their credit card in your wallet. That’s their new business model.

Now the last holdout, Southwest, has given in and accepted the “goose your customers for everything” approach. So what does that mean?

The New Southwest

At the end of the month, Southwest makes its changes. If your flight is on Southwest, you will get a randomly assigned seat at the back of the plane. You cannot request window or aisle, it’s all random. If you don’t want to sit in the back, and you prefer an aisle or window, pay up a little and sit in the middle of the plane. Pay a little more, and you get extra leg room at the front of the aircraft. (Just like on United, Delta, American Alaska, etc.)

Bags No Longer Fly Free

Bags used to fly free on Southwest, but no longer. It’s now $35 each way for a bag, effectively raising the price of a trip including flights on Southwest by $70. Note the comment above. An airline often makes more from the checked bag fee than it does from the ticket you purchased.

Upgrading Your Seat Within Economy Class, or to First Class

More people are opting for this option. (Note: We do not make any commissions from selling you airline tickets, so if you decide to upgrade on the plane, we are happy to help, but the airline does not compensate us for providing that service.)

How do you upgrade? There are two ways.

One might cost more. When we reserve seats on a flight, we generally get a discounted fare. The discount can be from $20 to several hundred, depending on the destination. We get that discount when we issue the tickets, generally 45-60 days prior to departure. Here are the options:

Tell us you wish to upgrade when making your reservation, or anytime more than 70 days prior to departure. We will tell you at that time what the cost of the upgrade will be. When we ticket the group, we will get your upgraded ticket and inform you it has been done. You only pay the difference for the upgrade seat. Under this option, there is a slight chance your desired seat might not be available. If that happens, the upgrade fee is refunded.

Here’s the second option: Notify us of your desire to upgrade and that you wish to do so immediately. We will go into the system and see what the full fare is (without the group discount) for your ticket, add the difference and issue your ticket immediately. Please note that tickets issued this way are NOT covered by Cancellation Protection. Once the ticket is issued, you own it. If you cannot travel, you can get a voucher from the airline, good for a year from the date the ticket was issued.

Bottom Line: Upgrade now and perhaps pay more. Upgrade later and pay less, but take a small chance the seat you want will not be available.

If all of this is just incredibly confusing, give us a call and we can explain. There have been a lot of questions about how the new Southwest will work. The simple answer is “pretty much the same as everyone else.” To us, not particularly good news. But let’s wait and see how the change-over works before passing judgement.

ACTIVITY METER

- 1 Leisurely: Leisurely – A tour that can be enjoyed by all requiring a minimal amount of walking on city streets and generally level surfaces. There could be a few stairs. A theater daytrip is an example.
- 2 Moderate: A tour with some walking activities, standing/strolling at attractions and museums, and some stair climbing. A daytrip to the ballpark or a museum exhibition, and short regional trips are examples. A moderate trip could include air or rail transportation and navigating through airports/stations.
- 3 Active: A tour which includes longer walks and/or walks on uneven surfaces. Days could be longer including air travel days with layovers. Some of your time could be spent at destinations with high altitudes. This is the level for most of our long-distance domestic and Canadian tours, vacations featuring national parks, and the minimum level for an overseas international trip. You should be able to walk 3-6 city blocks in a timely fashion a few times per day. You could find a flight of stairs without handrails, uneven nature trails and the like. Tours with a seaplane or jeep ride, and the ability to climb into the plane/jeep, along with longer rail journeys fall into this category.
- 4 Energetic: A tour with an emphasis on walking and other physical activities. Most overseas tours fit in this category, as well as many metropolitan domestic tours (New York and Washington, DC, especially). Expect long plane flights and walking longer distances at connections and/or customs. You might have to climb into a boat, carriage or train. You should not consider a tour on this level if you need wheelchair assistance at the airport or other places.
- 5 Challenging: Tours like these are designed with daily physical activities like hiking and other vigorous pursuits. They can be great travel experiences, but are not typical of most Sports Leisure Vacations trips.

Giants Baseball Day Trips for 2026

Here is the schedule of Giants baseball day trips for 2026. See the season opening overnigher against the Yankees also on these pages. All trips include your game ticket, all on the Club Level in either section 224 or 229, in the shade (by game time). The Club Level seats offer a great view, semi-private concessions and rest rooms, a Giants Museum and just a much better experience. There are escalators/elevators to get to the seats. Refreshments are served on the coach each way. Gametimes are generally 12:45pm on weekdays, 1:05pm on Sundays. We arrive at the ballpark about 1 1/2 hours prior to the start of the game, which generally insures if there is a giveaway that day, you get it!

Route 66, The Main Street of America – Part II

Oklahoma City to Santa Monica

8 Days • October 15-22, 2026

2

The second half of your journey down The Mother Road is very different from the Chicago/Oklahoma City half. The spaces are more wide open in the west. There are national parks and the small towns have a different personality.

★ Highlights ★

- Air to Oklahoma City, return from Burbank
- 19 meals: 8 breakfasts, 8 lunches, 3 dinners – many meals in “roadie” spots along the old road
- Door-to-door service – pick-up from your home
- All attractions as listed in the itinerary
- 4650/5150 Gold Passport Points

1. Sacramento to Oklahoma City by air – Depart Sacramento at 7am and arrive (via Houston) a little after 4pm. Enjoy complimentary cocktails at your hotel and dinner in historic Bricktown before retiring.

Embassy Suites (D)

2. Oklahoma City to Amarillo, 259 miles – With a couple of exceptions, Route 66 leaving Oklahoma City closely follows I-40. (Fact: It took five interstate highways to replace The Mother Road.) Photos galore fill the day. The 1930's Texaco Station in El Reno is worth a look, and we might stop at the 66 Monument. The first, and one of the best, small town museums on this side of the route is in Clinton and there's another in Elk City. Each locale is proud of their connection to the historic road.

After lunch, the hometown of Roger Miller ("King of the Road") and Sheb Wholley ("Purple People Eaters") today plays host to one of the road's most interesting characters, Harley Russell. You will never forget this stop...promise. At the end of the day, tie up your horse in Amarillo with dinner at The Big Texan. Hampton Inn (FB,L,D)

3. Amarillo to Albuquerque via Santa Fe, 288 miles – See the old Cadillacs "rear ends up" as you head out of town. The legendary Blue Swallow Motel is worth a picture just after you pass the mid-point of the route in Adrian. See a few of the murals in Tucumcari, before taking the detour to Santa Fe. There is a choice here, the trolley tour around town or a visit to the Georgia O'Keefe Museum (you must make your choice in advance). The last leg of our longest day on the road brings you into Albuquerque about 6:30pm. Hilton Garden Inn – 2 nights (ECB,L)

4. Albuquerque & Acoma Pueblo – The two night stay allows us an opportunity to tour Albuquerque this morning. New Mexico's largest city is full of Route 66 landmarks. Then it's time for an off-the-highway experience, with a visit to the Acoma Pueblo. Native American guides will walk you through and share the history of their home. This isn't some tourist attraction, this is the real deal. Dinner tonight at the Route 66 Diner. (FB,L,D)

5. Albuquerque to Winslow, 266 miles – A lot of open road today, as you leave New Mexico and enter Arizona. In Gallup, learn the story of the unlikely World War II heroes, the Navajo Code Talkers. Cross the Continental Divide and finish the day "Standin' on a Corner in Winslow, Arizona," (like the lyric in the old Eagles song). Stay in some of the desert's most beautiful accommodations, a restored Harvey House Hotel from the highway's glory days. Dine tonight in the Turquoise Room. La Posada – 2 nights (FB,L,D)

6. The Petrified Forest & The Harvey Girls, 112 miles – The feature today is Petrified Forest National Park. Millions of years of the planet's history is on display for you to view. Back at La Posada, ladies dressed as old-fashioned Harvey Girls will give you a tour of the property, sharing stories of visitors from days gone by. (FB,L)

7. Winslow to Laughlin, 238 miles – First stop on The Mother Road this morning is another unique attraction, The Meteor Crater. Lunch is in Williams and a stretch of the old road brings us into Seligman, home of a Route 66 legend, Angel Delgadillo. Often called "The Father of The Mother Road," Angel's life is forever intertwined with Route 66. Have ice cream at the Sno-Cap Drive Inn and soak up some of the small town hospitality that makes old 66 such a great place. End the day in the gambler's mecca of Laughlin, on the Nevada side of the Colorado River. TBA (FB,L)

8. Laughlin to San Bernardino, 237 miles – The "Main Street of America" has many different looks, but none quite like the one you'll find in Oatman. The burros (friendly) roam the streets, and the people of the town are...well...friendly...and unique in their own right. We'll create our own souvenir before heading on to California!

Afternoon attractions include the Goofs Schoolhouse, where General Patton prepared his troops for WWII, the twice-abandoned town of Amboy, a ranch with trees made of bottles and the story of a retirement home for strippers that was a site of a memorable Sports Leisure moment. Taco Bell and McDonald's both got their start on or near The Mother Road and their stories are told in San Bernardino. Hilton Garden Inn – San Bernardino (FB,L)

9. San Bernardino to Santa Monica (75 miles)/Sacramento – There are two different Wigwam Motels on the route, and this morning we'll stop for a photo opp at one. Los Angeles is mostly freeways, but there are still pieces of Route 66 and we'll find a few. Lunch is at Philippe's, said to be the place the French Dip sandwich was invented. Yum! (FB,L)

Finally, it's on through Hollywood to the coast, with time at the pier in Santa Monica, where the nearly 2,500 mile route comes to an end. Our return flight leaves from the nearby Burbank airport in late afternoon (FB,L)

- Visit the legendary "Clown Motel" and see the courthouse under restoration in ghostly Belmont
- Travel the Extraterrestrial Highway – home of the secret Area 51, where countless UFO sightings have been recorded
- 2350/2550 Gold Passport Points

Your flight arrives in Las Vegas early afternoon. After a great buffet lunch at The Excalibur on The Strip, we'll check into our accommodations. Later, visit the Neon Museum, where old Vegas signs live on. Then we are joined by our guide who will narrate the history of "The Strip" and point out some of Las Vegas most haunted spots. Return to the hotel about 9:30pm. (D)

The morning brings a colorful look at Vegas history with a visit to The Mob Museum. Take the afternoon off before heading to Goodsprings this evening for an authentic Ghost Hunt. After a couple of minutes of instruction, chances are good you'll be talking to the spirit world. The Pioneer Saloon is the place where Clark Gable waited for word on his wife, Carole Lombard. Alas, Gable burned holes in the bar with his cigar and his love died in the mountains in a plane crash. We'll enjoy a casual meal at the old saloon and explore town after dark, ghost meters in hand. (FB,D)

Rhyolite, Gold Point and Goldfield are on the itinerary today, as you journey north from Las Vegas to central Nevada. From a house made of glass to a former McDonald's franchise operator turned ghost town owner, you'll see the sights and meet the characters that make them legendary. Goldfield is just south of Tonopah, and has a colorful history. Learn about the world championship title fight, which took an astounding 42 rounds, held there In 1906. Yes, Goldfield was a boom town like no other around the turn of the last century. Today, it's a sleepy, dusty town in the middle of nowhere. (FB,L,D)

Arrive in Tonopah in late afternoon. Tonight, dine in the Jack Dempsey Room and listen to stories about the ghosts who roam the Mizpah Hotel – 2 nights. (FB,L,D)

Established In 1865 following a silver strike, Belmont is one of Nevada's most spectacular ghost towns. Level streets, a few residents in town to keep things in order, it's a great place to explore. Our guide lives in town and is helping to restore the old courthouse. A fascinating look at a ghost town on a comeback. There's also a side trip to Manhattan. Back in Tonopah, explore the "famous" Clown Motel. (FB,L,D)

The drive back to Las Vegas is on the Extraterrestrial Highway. This area was "off limits" to the public for many years. Heck, the government didn't even want to admit its existence. Travel through the tiny town of Rachel, and perhaps meet some of the residents. You've gone from ghosts to outer space, in just 24 hours! Our return flight from Las Vegas departs in early evening. (FB,L)

$2310 p.p./dbl.occ., $2520 single

Route 66, The Main Street of America, Part I

Chicago to Oklahoma City

10 Days • April 14-23 or May 5-14

The ultimate road trip. A journey down Route 66 is like cutting yourself a slice of All-American Pie. You'll discover people and places you didn't know existed – like the murals that line the walls of Pontiac, IL and Cuba, MO; Ted Drewes Frozen Custard in St. Louis and the magnificent Lincoln Presidential Library & Museum in Springfield, IL. Meet Route 66 authors and experts, roadies and characters. If you love "off-the-beaten-track," you've found your trip, a wonderful combination of history, Americana and more road food than you can imagine.

★ Highlights ★

- Overnight Chicago; 2 nights Springfield, IL; 2 nights St. Louis; overnights in Springfield, MO; Miami, OK; Tulsa, OK; Oklahoma City, OK.
- Meet the people and hear the stories of a century of Route 66 – special guides, speakers and guests; lots of quirky attractions from days gone by

- Including: Home pick-up, airfare and 24 meals, many of them in classic restaurants – everything from roadside diners to fancy sit-downs in historic venues

1. Fly to Chicago: Depart from Sacramento at 5:55am this morning, arriving in Chicago just before noon. Your first “roadie” experience is a stop for a meal at Del Rhea’s Chicken Basket (founded in 1946). Overnight and get a picture of the beginning of the Mother Road downtown at your “Magnificent Mile” hotel. Hampton Inn Magnificent Mile (L)

2. Chicago to Springfield: Our adventure begins in earnest with breakfast at a Chicago landmark: Lou Mitchell’s (1923) breakfast counter. It’s a longtime Windy City tradition.

Outside of Chicago, we get off the interstate and follow the old road. Wind through Joliet (your first old highway museum) to the small community of Odell (where we photograph a beautifully restored old service station), on to Pontiac for lunch. View the memorabilia in the Route 66 Museum, learn about the “walldogs” murals in town, and the man who inspired them, the late Bob Waldmire.

Mother Road attractions include an old jail, a giant robot, a sirup (that’s the way they spell it) company and the home of the legendary “Pig Hip”. Ernie Edwards was the owner. Ernie’s favorite story was about the night a guy with a special chicken recipe stopped by the Pig Hip. It’s quite a tale. Lincoln Hotel by Doubletree, Springfield – 2 nights (FB,L)

3. Springfield/Lincoln: Visit the critically-acclaimed Lincoln Presidential Library & Museum, before a lunch break at the famous Cozy Dog (1946), where it is said the corn dog was invented. The presidential museum is truly of the finest in the country. The Ace Sign Company in town is responsible for the original and restored versions of many signs along the Mother Road. At Route History, learn how different traveling Route 66 was for people of color, and hear the story of the “sundown” towns. (FB,L,D)

4. Springfield to St. Louis: Our rural travels roll on through southern Illinois. Stop to spruce up the Our Lady of the Highways statue. At the Rabbit Ranch, hear the story of Henry and his many rabbits. Mother

Jones (1930) was a legend in these parts and you’ll get a picture of the Cannonball Jail (1869) and Million Dollar Courthouse in Carlinville. An afternoon stop in St. Louis gives you a chance to go to the top of the Gateway Arch (1965) and get views of the old highway from above. Drury Hotel Maplewood – 2 nights (FB,L,D)

5. St. Louis: Take a break today in and around St. Louis. Across the Mississippi River at Cahokia Mounds (600AD), learn about a civilization in the Missouri River Valley from long ago; then walk over the Mississippi on the Chain of Rocks Bridge, once the route of old 66, back into Missouri. This afternoon, enjoy a special Route 66 treat, Ted Drewes Frozen Custard. Tonight, it’s dinner on “The Hill,” the neighborhood where Yogi Berra grew up! (B,L)

6. St. Louis to Springfield, MO: The Meramec Caverns (1933) were opened to tourists in the 1930’s, just about the time Route 66 made traveling to them easier. In the late 1860’s, Jesse James used them as a natural hideout. The smooth path allows nearly all to explore.

What follows is a marvelous stretch of The Mother Road, through Cuba (what beautiful murals) to Devil’s Elbow into Ozark Country. Lunch is at one of our favorite roadside retreats, the Missouri Hick BBQ in Cuba. A local guide tells us about the murals in town. There’s also a stop at “Uranus,” a unique roadside stop that isn’t popular with everyone in town.

Finish the day in Springfield, MO, where Route 66 was “born.” We’ll celebrate The Main Street of America tonight by dining at Steak ‘n Shake! Drury Inn (B,L,D)

7. Springfield to Miami: On the way to Carthage is a most interesting spot, Red Oak. This collection of buildings is practically a town... isn’t it? Who did this and why? The nearby town square in Carthage is a true jewel, sporting a wonderful old-time soda fountain that affords us time for lunch. After passing through Joplin, tiny Riverton is along the 13-mile stretch of Route 66 which cuts through the corner of Kansas. Cars on the Route is a chance to meet some really interesting local characters.

Kansas is home to the shortest stretch of the old highway, just over 13 miles. In Galena, meet “Tow-Tator,” who bears an incredible likeness to a tow truck in the Disney movie Cars named “Tow-Mater.” In fact, this is the old truck that inspired the character! Tonight, dine in the historic Coleman Theater, a 1929 landmark the town has successfully saved. Hampton Inn (B,L,D)

8. Miami to Tulsa: First stop today is in Commerce, the hometown of Mickey Mantle, and indeed, stop for photos at his childhood home. The guys in the group will appreciate one special feature on the side of the garage. There’s a park with giant cement Totem Poles, and then you’ll arrive in Claremore, to visit the Will Rogers Memorial, a tribute to America’s famous humorist. Lunch is special, with treats not afforded just any traveler, as you’ll see. There’s even a picture stop at the legendary Blue Whale on the way to Tulsa. Hilton Garden Inn (B,L)

9. Tulsa to Oklahoma City: This was the home of Black Wall Street and something forgettable happened here in 1921, just before The Mother Road was born. A guided tour this morning will bring history to life. Leaving Tulsa, we come to Stroud and stop for lunch at the Rock Café. There’s a great story here! Just up the road in Arcadia is the Round Barn. Built in 1898, the barn is being restored to its original grandeur. At “Pops,” you can choose your own afternoon refreshment! Embassy Suites (FB,L,D)

10. Oklahoma City and Home: Plan to depart for home on a flight about 3pm today. One more wonderful stretch of Route 66 first however. Our expert Oklahoma guide, takes us to The Stockyards, then tells the story of the Dust Bowl and how it changed the lives of those in its path and sent tens of thousands to the “promised land” in California. Departure time permitting, a visit to the Cowboy Heritage Museum is planned. (FB)

$4925 p.p./dbl.occ., $5820 single

Route 66 West departs in October and can be found in the
New tours section

- Transportation, 5000/5800 Gold Passport Points

In celebration of our Semiquincentennial we're going to the heart of American history on this unforgettable East Coast adventure. From the cobblestone streets of Philadelphia to the never-sleeping excitement of New York City, each day offers a new chapter in the story of the United States, woven with Revolutionary tales and patriotic flavors.

1. Touch down in Philadelphia around 5 pm and settle into your hotel home, nestled in the historic district. Offering easy access to nearby landmarks and a wide array of dining options, take time to wander the storied streets, soaking in the Colonial architecture and the city's vibrant energy. Dinner is yours to discover – perhaps a classic Philly cheesesteak or upscale fare in Old City. Hilton Garden Inn Center City – 3 nights

2. With a local guide leading the way, experience Revolutionary revelations in your deep dive into Philadelphia's rich legacy, especially poignant during our country's 250th anniversary. Visit the National Constitution Center, Independence Hall and stand before the iconic Liberty Bell to name but a few of the singular, all-American sites

you'll see today. (FB,L)

3. Begin with a visit to the American Revolution Museum, then to Christ Church and Burial Ground, final resting place of Benjamin Franklin and other revolutionary figures. Take a break at the bustling Reading Terminal Market where local flavors and artisanal treats await your selection for lunch. Afterwards learn about our first flag at the Betsy Ross Home. (FB,L)

4. Depart Philadelphia and head north (less than 100 miles) to the Big Apple. Your arrival begins with a hosted brunch at Fraunces Tavern – once a meeting place for George Washington and his officers. Savor the ambiance and cuisine in this storied Downtown landmark. Did you know New York City was our nation's first Capital City? When George had a hard day at the office, it was here – on Wall Street no less! We'll begin our exploration of the Big Apple's often-forgotten Colonial past right after brunch. Then we head Uptown to Times Square and our hotel home. New York Marriott Marquis – 3 nights (FB,BR)

5. Today we visit the site where the inauguration of our first president was held; then pop in on the Trinity and St. Paul's Churchyards to honor the early Americans who rest there. Touring will continue to a Brooklyn site where history declared: The Declaration of Independence was signed in ink at Philadelphia and signed in blood at Brooklyn. Have lunch in Brooklyn's trendy DUMBO before returning to Midtown where you can grab a quick rest before dinner and the Carnegie Hall Birthday Gala featuring the New York Pops Orchestra! (L,D)

6. Today is for Broadway. OK, so that's not Colonial-era, but how can we come here and not pay homage to musical theatre, THE all-American art form? Visit a rehearsal studio where actors, musicians and technicians will share their stories of training, pathways to the stage and maybe even some behind-the-curtain secrets. Before returning to the hotel we will visit the Museum of Broadway for a comprehensive look at the history of The Great White Way. This year Hamilton marks its 10th year on stage. We just can't resist this epic tale of Founding Father "A-dot-Ham"! If you've already seen the show tell us at the point of reservation and we will help find another performance more to your liking. (D)

7. On our way to LaGuardia, we'll stop and spend a few hours with our favorite True Heroes at a firehouse in the Bronx. Enjoy lunch in the real Little Italy. Meet the shop owners who produced the foods you enjoyed at lunch. If you like grab some to take home – our treat! (L)

Your accommodations in Newport are right on the beach! Hallmark Hotel – 2 nights (L)

2. The Oregon Aquarium offers a great experience to "meet" some of the local marine wildlife. We have a better idea. It's the "behind-the-scenes" tour, where you'll get up close and personal with the critters. There time for lunch and browsing on the waterfront, then a free afternoon to enjoy the view and/or walk on the beach. A cocktail cruise on the bay is followed by dinner at Clearwater, the best dining Newport has to offer. (B,D)

3. Just an hour south of Newport, on the coast, is Florence. It's a wonderful little town with great shops and restaurants and a great place for lunch. Just a bit further south are the sand dunes. Board a big buggy this morning and for a gentle ride over the dunes, or a smaller buggy (still with a driver) for a more adventurous ride. Arrive in Coos Bay in late afternoon.

Edgewater Resort – 2 nights (B)

4. Spend the day exploring some wonderful off-the-beaten-track attractions with a local guide in and around Bandon, just to the south. Like to shop? At Washed Ashore, you'll hear the story of a small company that is trying to help clean up the ocean, one piece of trash at a time. What an inspiring story. Shore Acres State Park is a highlight. There's a story here and a great view. Please enjoy both. Back in Coos Bay, enjoy dinner, featuring the salmon the area is known for (alternate entrees available). (FB,D)

For years, Justin has been taking our groups into the redwoods to teach them about some of nature's grandest creations, the Coastal Redwoods. The groves are Justin's "church" and he will take you into the forest for a few moments of "worship" this morning. Leave the trees and the coast behind as we make our way home on Hwys 101, 20 and I-5. Stop for lunch in Willits, arriving in Sacramento about

What are your old coins worth?

Maybe you have a bag or box of old coins. Perhaps you inherited a collection when a relative passed. Maybe it's just one or two coins or bills of currency you'd like to know about. If your coins are pre-1964 (50¢, 25¢, 10¢) or pre-1940 (pennies and nickels), or recent coins that are part of mint-issued sets, they may have a premium value. Currency 1935 and before also fits into the "value" category.

But who/where can you take them to get an honest evaluation of their worth? Mark would be happy to give you a free appraisal. If you wish to sell your treasures, that is easy to arrange. Often Mark will offer to purchase them, or get you easily to someone who is interested. You can bring your coins to the office, or for larger heavier collections, Mark can come to you. Just call the office to set up an appointment. Feel free to share this offer with family and friends.
